More than 300,000 professionals in the law enforcement and security fields have attended this three-day program since it was first offered in 1974. Participants come from both the private and the public sector, including all levels of law enforcement and government; every U.S. state and Canadian province, Europe, Asia and the Middle East.

This training seminar features a discussion of three primary topics: Behavior Symptom Analysis (the verbal and nonverbal behavioral characteristics which can be used to distinguish a truthful person from a deceptive individual); the Behavior Analysis Interview (a non-accusatory interview process utilizing both investigative and behavior provoking questions); and, "The Reid Nine Steps of Interrogation."

SEMINAR TOPICS INCLUDE

- ♦ Interview and Interrogation Preparation
- ♦ Distinction Between an Interview and Interrogation
- ♦ Proper Room Environment
- ♦ Factors Affecting a Subject's Behavior
